

Aruba Bank welcomes their new CEO Edwin Tromp with a gala affair at the Wyndham

The Grand Ballroom of the Wyndham Aruba Resort Spa & Casino was filled to capacity with well-wishers from the Aruban community during a very special welcome to Edwin Tromp, the newly appointed CEO of Aruba Bank. The board of directors of Aruba Bank expressed supreme confidence that Mr. Tromp, with his impeccable record and visionary attitude will bring an energy and professionalism to his position that is in complete accord with the dynamic outlook of Aruba Bank and the service they offer their customers.

Mr. Tromp is a well-known figure to the Aruba banking community, and the island in general, and many prominent business and political figures attended the gala event to congratulate Mr. Tromp and the board members of the Aruba Bank.